Bram Stoffele Trio

Improvise, immerse, inspire

BIO

The Bram Stoffele Trio (BST) plays jazz that moves you, guiding you through poignant melodies, captivating rhythms, and harmonic atmospheres in which you can lose yourself.

Drawing inspiration from modern jazz icons such as Esbjörn Svensson, Pat Metheny, and bassist Avishai Cohen, BST crafts its own unique sound. In addition to existing repertoire, the trio performs original compositions, distinguished by their narrative quality.

Audience

"I thought it was fantastic, and especially dynamic. Iincredibly versatile."

"Incredibly surprising and even emotional .... "

"A musical delight right up to the final note!"

"To me, it was music that truly hits home. And especially with the stories, the imagery in the music really came to life."
